Save the Date!
St. John School Ice Cream Social

When: Thursday, December 15th, 2011
Where: School Cafetorium
Time: 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. Open house - style

Dear St. John School parents,
Please set aside Thursday, December 15th, 2011 to attend our St. John School Ice Cream Social. This is the official kick-off for our 2012 Auction! This is the day that everyone will bring their item to donate to the school auction. By that time, if you have not yet come up with any ideas for an item or service donation, we will have plain white envelopes there for you to include a monetary donation instead. So, bring your donated item and join in the fun as we kick off another Auction with the Good Lord's help and blessing!

A delicious ice cream sundae bar will be available for the whole family to make their own, delicious, one of a kind creations. And speaking of 'one-of-a-kind' creations, your children will be working hard during their art classes to design a one of a kind, precious, keepsake for you to treasure :

A beautifully hand-painted, glass, mug to take home with you that day! These original pieces of artwork will be available for pick up during the ice cream social!

SO: - Friday, January 30th:

---Bring your donation, (so that we can collect all school family donations for the Auction)

---Eat ice Cream,

---Bring home your child's/children's glass, Mug masterpieces!

See you there,
In Christ,
Christine McDunnough and the Ice Cream Social Committee

SCHOOL FUNDRAISER

Due to a decision within the company that provides Sally Foster, we were unable to pair the cookie dough sale with the Sally Foster product sale this year. However, the cookie dough sale was well-received in the past, so we are offering cookie dough for sale again this year. You, your friends, and family will have an opportunity to stock up on cookie dough in time for the holidays. It may also come in handy for the 8th grade bake sales.

The sale will run for one week only. Flyers will be sent home with students on Tuesday, November 1st. Please turn them to the school no later than November 10th so that we can meet our delivery deadline. If you have any questions, please contact Julie Kenrick 735-1505 or Jane Bubnar 750-0602

HALLOWEEN COSTUME GUIDELINES:

From page 20 of the 2011-2012

Parent-Student Handbook:
Since All Hallows' Eve
(Halloween) is the eve of All Saints Day, the costumes worn on All Hallows' Eve should be in keeping with the holyday.

1. Choose life-giving, positive types of costumes, such as religious or Bible figures, Disney characters, sports heroes, careers, harvest, toys, etc. Masks should be small and not cover the child's whole head.
2. If a student's costume is judged inappropriate, regular school clothes will have to be worn instead of the costume.
3. Kindergartners and Junior Kindergartners may wear their costumes to school. All other student must bring their costume to school to be put on just before the class party.
4. NO Costumes that depict or promote violence, war, blood, and death, swords, guns, weapons, and any type of object that depicts violence;

NO make-up, hair dye or hair spray, nail polish, etc. brought to school

NOTE: Parents that assist in classroom parties in costume must follow the above guidelines.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Prayers for:

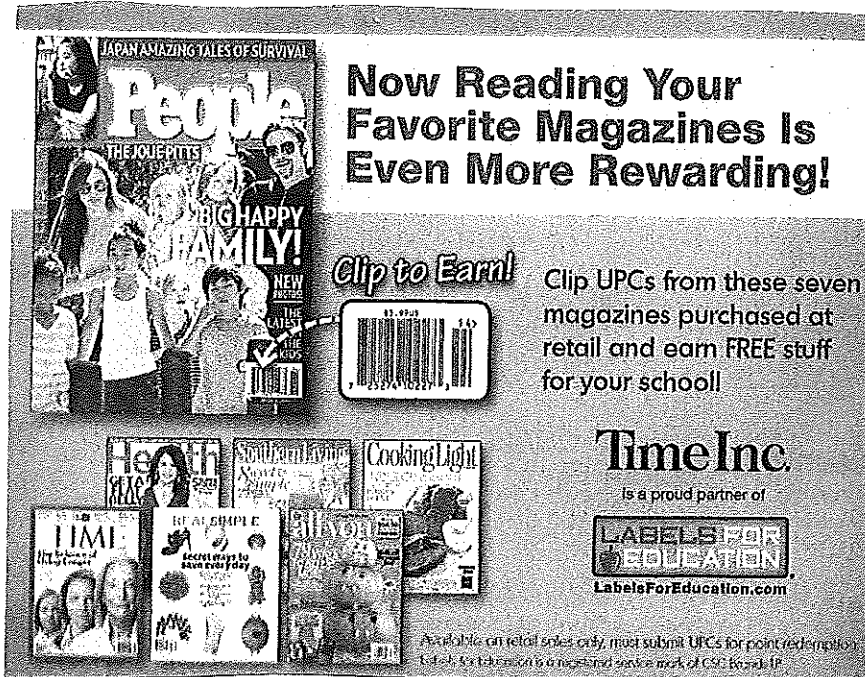

Madison, Mekenzie and Corey Koscinski, whose Grandfather is having heart surgery next week.
