News and Views from Mr. Schmit

Hello!

The half day virtual learning practice day went well. Next week the teachers will work with their homerooms and troubleshoot some of the issues that popped up during our practice day. Our next virtual practice day will be a full day, set for FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20. Our teachers will send out schedules/log-in information/expectations prior to the start of school on Friday morning. Our third through eighth graders will once again bring home their assigned technology and will need to be ready to go for Friday morning.

Before I begin my rundown, I want to point out an awesome trend we are experiencing here at SJS when it comes to student behavior policies. One of my numerous goals as I took over this position in the Spring of 2019 was to improve on how we handle helping our students learn from their mistakes and grow, aka school discipline. In 2018-19 the SJS administration dealt with 80 discipline referrals (referrals are the green forms filled out by teachers/supervisors when there is a discipline issue, following the SJS rubric). Last year through 75% of the academic calendar I worked through around 30 referrals. This year I have only had to handle a handful of issues, including 2 discipline referrals. I believe this positive trend is because we have teachers and parents communicating, remaining positive, and working on helping our students be the best versions of themselves. A huge thank you to all of you who are helping us improve in this important area!

Here's my Virtual Learning Practice Day #1 Rundown:

- I would like to introduce our new United States Flag crew: James Roche (7th Grade), Quinn Palmer (6th Grade), Dominic Fatolitis (7th Grade), and Gabe Meyers (6th Grade). The boys will be responsible for the raising and lowering of our nation's flag each day.
- A huge thanks to the families who donated lunches to the staff this week! We are blessed to have the support of such a wonderful, caring community.
- The Foundation's Ornament Decorating that occurred this week was very successful. Over 80 students participated this year. Barb Walstrom did a great job coordinating the decorating and getting volunteers to help our students. I especially want to thank a couple of our middle school students, Chloe Wood and Quinn Palmer, for going out of their way to help our younger students with some of the project tasks.
- Although the county is experiencing an increase in COVID19 cases, we will continue with face-to-face instruction for the foreseeable future. We need to continue doing everything we can to ensure in-person instruction from following the protocols within the school to adhering to social distancing, the wearing of masks and following gathering limits outside of school.
- We are going to have a Eucharistic Procession for our students the morning of November 18. However, in order to keep in line with our protocols and procedures the procession will be limited to Fr. Robert and four of our 8th Grade Altar Servers. This year we will be bringing the Blessed Sacrament into each of our classrooms during the procession. Our parents are invited to join in the procession through the parking lot which will go from the church to the steps going up to the second floor of the school. The procession will begin after the conclusion of the 8:20 daily mass. Anyone joining in the procession will have to remain outside of the school while Jesus is carried throughout our hallways and into our classrooms.

I hope and pray that we all are able to get some rest this weekend. Stay healthy and be blessed.

Andrew Schmit

VIRTUAL DAY INFORMATION

Our next Virtual Practice Day will be Friday, November 20th. Homeroom teachers will be communicating to parents what the individual classroom schedules will look like. You will also receive log-in information for any Zoom style meetings that will be held. The school office will be open during the Virtual Learning sessions. Feel free to contact the office if you need assistance with anything. Below are some general guidelines for Remote Learning for all students:

- Virtual Days are not optional. Attendance will be taken. Please be sure to communicate with the office if your child will be absent from virtual learning on those days. If multiple Zoom meetings are held in one day (especially for middle school), attendance will be taken during each meeting.
- Be sure your device is connected to your home internet prior to the virtual learning time, preferably the night before the meeting time.
- Please show up to Zoom meetings ON TIME and ready to learn (dressed appropriately, quiet voices, listening ears).
- Try to set up a virtual learning space that will be free from distractions while in a Zoom meeting.
- Please remain on "mute" in your Zoom meeting until asked to participate by your teacher. Also, keep your video ON.
- Please be sure to eat before your Zoom meeting or during your snack break. Refrain from eating during live instruction/meetings.
- Please do not write in the group chat boxes unless invited to do so by your teacher.

Staff Spotlight

What is your favorite NON-FOOD Thanksgiving tradition?

Mrs. Whitney: Watching the parade in the morning and football in the afternoon!

Mrs. Dawes: My favorite non-food tradition is going to my sister's house and spending time with my family.

Ms. Bade: Going to the Lions game with my family!

Mrs. Salzano: Playing fun games with my family!

Mrs. Boyle: The day after Thanksgiving, we always go the Christmas tree farm-rain, shine, or snow! We bundled Natalie up last year, even though there wasn't any snow!

Mr. Willard: Watching NFL football...and the Lions.

Mrs. Marinelli: We have a huge canvas that we all write what we are thankful for on. It's been going on for about 10 years and it's fun to look back on the previous years.

Ms. Jennings: After dinner, we play card games as a family tradition. We also go around the table and ask each person what they are thankful for. Our neighbors usually come over for the games, but this year will be only family.

Mrs. Roberts: Watching the good ol' Lions, planning our Black Friday day, while we wait for my dad and husband to return home from the game!!

Mrs. Ratke: We used to go to the tree farm to cut a tree down every year with my whole family the day after Thanksgiving. Now we have an artificial tree and still put it up the day after Thanksgiving instead of going to chop it down.

Mrs. Wright: I love our Thanksgiving tradition of going around the table and hearing the things for which each person is thankful.

Mrs. Farella: My favorite Thanksgiving tradition is gathering with all of my family, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. It is nice to see everyone together and visit and catch up with one another.

Ms. Feazel: Watching the Lions game with my extended family.

Ms. Adams: Going to my Aunt and Uncle's on the west side of the state every single year and spending the whole weekend there. Sadly, we cannot go this year, but they will be joining everyone on the east side!

Mr. Garbutt: My favorite tradition is hanging out all day with family. The laughter and joy that fills the room is something truly special on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Haiss: My favorite thing is writing in our family Thanksgiving journal and just spending the entire day with my family and not feeling rushed to do anything else or go anywhere else.

Mr. Schmit: After cleaning up from Thanksgiving Dinner, we decorate gingerbread houses and watch Christmas Vacation.
